COMMUNICATIONS FROM DEPARTMENT HEADS

Police Chief Brian Buchholz thanked Pastor Scott for his support. He advised residents that improper use of fireworks is a Civil Infraction. Mayor Webb thanked him for handling traffic issues at the intersection of Ford St. & Robert St.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY ATTORNEY - None

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY MANAGER

City Manager Klobucher thanked Community Development Director Campbell, Finance Director Laci Christiansen, Dept. of Public Works Superintendent Tom Jones, Clerk Finkley, City Attorney Schwartz and Assistant City Attorney Mason for their hard work. He also spoke regarding the proliferation of fireworks this year and asked that people be considerate of their neighbors. The use of fireworks outside permitted hours of 11:00 a.m. to 11:45 p.m. from June 29th to July 4th, 2020 is a $1000 fine. Additionally, next year's budget will be tight due to COVID-19.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM MAYOR & COUNCIL

Councilmember Aubry provided a Census update. At present, Hazel Park has about a 70% response rate. She thanked the Microbusiness applicants who attended and answered questions. Lastly, she advised people that there are a lot of fireworks that are not loud, as the noise of fireworks can be traumatic for neighbors and pets.

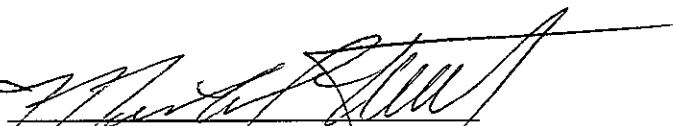

Councilmember LeCureaux thanked staff for setting up the technology for the meeting and echoed the words of a former Councilmember.

Mayor Pro Tem Sullivan reiterated earlier comments on fireworks. People should also check on neighbors and pets given the heat. She thanked Chief Buchholz for his handling of recent demonstrations.

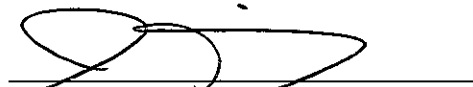

Mayor Webb advised that several local restaurants and small businesses are opening in accordance with social distancing guidelines and will need the patronization of residents in order to stay open. Additionally, people were encouraged to be helpful and respectful of their neighbors.

ADJOURNMENT – 6:56 p.m.

CO-06-105-20 Motion to Adjourn: Motion by LeCureaux, second by McFall, to Adjourn. All in favor. Motion carried unanimously.
